Now is the time to advertise in THE LEDGER and get a share of the Prosperity.

If you want to see a slack-burning stove that would melt the North Pole, call at THE LEDGER office.

The venerable Mrs. Maria Saunders died of bronchitis yesterday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Abner Hord, near Wedonia. Mrs. Saunders was 90 years old and formerly lived in Bath county. The funeral occurred today, the interment being at Flemingsburg.

The party of Chesapeake and Ohio officials, on its annual tour of track and road inspection, has arrived at Newport News from Cincinnati. It is understood that the inspection has been highly satisfactory. A prize will be offered for the most satisfactory piece of track in the system.

The Ohio Valley Improvement Association Convention convenes in Cincinnati Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, in the Grand Hotel assembly room. Many prominent men—Senators, Governors and river men—will lend their presence and give their counsel in assisting the Association to have passed laws and appropriations which shall give to the Ohio river a depth of current sufficient to make it useful the year round. The Maysville Board of Trade sees the benefit of this organization and wants a hand in the work, so at a meeting of the Board of Directors last week a donation of $10 was made to aid it, and Mr. C. M. Phister, Mr. John C. Adamson, Mr. Thomas A. Keith and Mr. E. P. Browning were appointed delegates to the Convention.

Most interesting services are being held at the Y. M. C. A. every night this week at 7:45 o'clock.

Tonight Dr. J. W. Porter will speak on the subject, "One Thing Thou Lackest." All men cordially invited to be present.

Basket ball in the Gymnasium at 8:45. Members of class invited to attend the meeting in the Parlor first.

There will be a meeting of the Ladies' Committee Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the rooms. Full attendance desired.

MR. BRYAN'S PANACEA.

If, on rising in the morning, you've a ringing in your ears,
And the ringing seems an echo of last night's McKinley cheers,
And you feel a glow of pleasure, as with patriotic thought,
You reflect that your great country will hold on to what she's got—
Man, you're threatened with expansion, with imperialism, sure—
And to find relief you'll have to take good Dr. Bryan's Cure.

If you have that crowded feeling in your pudgy pocket-book—
If the coins that clink so merrily are yellow in their look—
If your eyes are so affected that they cannot really see—
The beauties and the glories of the silver that is free—
O, beware, afflicted mortal, 'tis golditis you endure,
And you should take sixteen doses of good Dr. Bryan's Cure!

If you've any doubts of whether Dr. Bryan's Cure will just Knock the microbes into nothing when they form a Microbe Trust,
You have caught monopolitis and you'd better take his dose—
True, he don't know how to cure them, but he has a lot of hope.

And you don't know it yourself, but then you're trodden down and poor. So you'd best secure a bottle of good Dr. Bryan's Cure.

If you've any other trouble—if you've falling of the hair,
If your dinner pail is heavy—such a load for you to bear!
If you waste your time in working, if your bank book is too fat,
The Bryan Panacea will soon remedy all that.

It's a brew of fickle fancy mixed with hot air, very pure,
And it's good for all your troubles—is old Dr. Bryan's Cure.

CAPTAIN J. H. MYERS.

Committed Suicide at His Home in Fleming Yesterday.

A FORMER RESIDENT OF THIS CITY.

Maysville citizens were shocked by the news of the death of Captain John Harvey Myers, who committed suicide by hanging at his home near Pleasant Valley, Fleming county, yesterday.

Captain Myers left his home during the day and not returning a search was instituted in the evening, resulting in the finding of his dead body.

Deceased was about 63 years of age. For many years he was a Conductor on the Kentucky Central Railroad, during which time he met with two serious accidents, one when he was knocked off a bridge near Cynthiana by a falling derrick, from the effects of which he was confined in a hospital for about a year; at another time he was buried beneath a wreck at Millersburg bridge.

Either of these accidents would have been fatal to most men, but Mr. Myers survived both, though they made him a cripple for life.

Added to these misfortunes was the loss of his home by the big fire on Forest avenue in this city some eight years ago.

He rebuilt, however, and shortly afterward his wife, a daughter of Dr. C. Keckley of Flemingsburg, died, leaving him childless and alone.

He sold his home here and purchased a farm near Licking, Fleming county, where for the last few years he has resided.

It is thought that while despondent, his mind impaired by long suffering, he ended his life yesterday.

It will be a source of deep regret to Captain Myers's many friends in this city to learn of this sad event.

Special Request.

In answering advertisements appearing in the columns of this paper, or when buying goods from a merchant whose advertisement appears in this paper, our readers are especially requested to state that they saw the advertisement in THE PUBLIC LEDGER. This will cost you nothing, and it will be gratefully appreciated by both the advertiser and the Editor.

On Monday, November 19, the Democratic voters in each of the precincts in the state, except in cities of the first and second class, will hold mass meetings and elect their Precinct Committees. This will be done in accordance with a resolution adopted by the State Convention in Louisville on June 14.

The Newton (Kan.) Republican says that a Galveston family which recently moved to the town attracted much attention by the affection which they bestowed upon a common-looking yellow cur. Inquiry revealed the fact that during the great storm along the coast of Texas the baby of the family had been swept off a porch and appeared to be hopelessly lost; but the dog plunged into the flood, fought with the waves and brought the baby back to safety.

AN IMPORTANT DIFFERENCE.

To make it apparent to thousands, who think themselves ill, that they are not afflicted with any disease, but that the system simply needs cleansing, is to bring comfort home to their hearts, as a coactive condition is easily cured by using Syrup of Figs. A ROOR RELATION.

It Will Be Seen Here at the Opera-House Monday Night.

The details for Frank Keenan's coming visit in Sol Smith Russell's great play, "A Poor Relation," which is limited to one night at the Washington Opera-house on Monday, November 19th, have been completed.

The story of "A Poor Relation" keeps one interested from beginning to end, on account of its dramatic strength, amusing situations, bright and witty dialogue and masterful construction.

Frank Keenan, who plays "Noah Vale," is one of the most unctuous actors America has given us; his facial expression is wonderful; by its power the audiences are convulsed with laughter; his pathos is of the quiet convincing character that holds you in anxious concernment throughout the play. These qualities being all so beautifully blended in Mr. Keenan's work in the portrayal of the character he represents, together with the admirable company supporting him and in a comedy of such genuine merit, makes a performance of such rich enjoyment that one longs for more of the same kind. Plays like "A Poor Relation" are seen so rarely that no one should miss this production.

Sale of tickets opens Friday at Nelson's.

Never try to coax a cold or cough, use the remedy that infallibly conquers both. Ballard's Horehound Syrup is the great specific for all throat and lung troubles. Price, 25 and 50 cents. J. Jas. Wood & Son.

Wedding Gifts!

DIAMONDS, STERLING SILVER, CUT GLASS, BRIC-A-BRAC, ONYX TABLES,

and many other beautiful things. You will find that our store offers peculiar advantages for the selection of bridal presents.

BALLENGER, Jeweler and Optician.

BEAUTIFUL UNDERWEAR!

When you claim you wouldn't take the trouble to make an undergarment for 10 to 50 cents when you can buy them here ready made for that sum, you also ostracize from home sewing the higher priced garments, because you know if the cheaper garments cost just in raw material what we ask for them ready-made the same ratio of value attaches to the higher grades. For instance; when you buy the soft fine fox cloth, handsome embroidery and lace of which our $1 nightgowns are made you'll find you've paid out that sum and still have the tedious sewing in prospect. Months ago these dainty garments were bargained for. They were all made for us. Every piece. They are from the largest, cleanest, best factory in America and we can advise you the quality of the goods is so high and the prices so low they do not touch each other. Every day a bargain day and everything a bargain.

For all fresh cuts or wounds, either on the human subject or on animals, Ballard's Snow Liniment is excellent; while for corn-huskers' sprained wrists, barbed wire cuts and sores on working horses, it cannot be too highly commended. Price, 25 and 50 cents. J. Jas. Wood & Son.

The Difference in Cost!

Of thoroughly good, fashionable and serviceable clothes and shoes, such as bear "our" label, and inferior goods is not large enough to warrant you taking the risk attached to buying ordinary goods. The kind of clothes we sell are tailored by the same class of journeymen tailors as are employed by high-priced merchant tailors. Not a yard of fabric is used in these garments that has not been thoroughly tested for its textile strength and color fastness; therefore, we thoroughly endorse and guarantee all goods we sell, and say "money refunded" without argument if for any reason you are dissatisfied with your purchase.

Our Experience as Well as Yours!

Has proven that the kind of merchandise we sell is as near perfection as can be, and though they cost a little more than the other kinds, they are really the cheapest kind in the end. Our leaders in clothes are Stein-Bloch Co., Adler Bros. & Co., the best brands in the country.

In Shirts the Manhattan, Hanan Shoes

Stetson Hats

All of these are the highest class of merchandise in their respective lines.
